

Food Banks Canada would like to thank The For GOOD Foundation for their generous support of food banks across Canada

What is The For GOOD Foundation?

As CEO of French's, Elliot Penner was a long-standing supporter of food banking in Canada. Upon retirement, he has continued his personal support through the creation of The For GOOD Foundation (FGF). He uses his expertise and connections to negotiate products that are of exceptional value exclusively for the food bank network in Canada. The FGF is 100% volunteer run with no salary or overhead. Any expenses are covered by Mr. Penner to ensure that food banks are receiving the best products, at the lowest cost possible.

Why are the prices so low?

The FGF model is built on philanthropic partnerships at every stage of the supply chain. Manufacturing partners have contributed significantly, providing all products at the cost of material, forgoing overhead and profit. Our distribution partner, Trucks For Change provides transportation enabling the same product cost for all food banks, regardless of size or location. Our administrative partner, Worldwide Distributors provides invoicing and payment collection for all FGF products.

Why purchase For GOOD Foundation products?

As a network, we have the opportunity to join together to increase our collective purchasing power and ease of purchasing. The For GOOD Foundation is a private foundation and will continually work to reduce product pricing for all of us. Product prices are guaranteed from when the booking forms are released, sheltering food banks from highly anticipated price increases that are expected to plague the market for the foreseeable future. As the demand for FGF products grows and network buying patterns become more predictable, we will be able to shorten the order lead time and expand the product line-up to include more products that will benefit everyone.

This booking will be the last time FGF product will be available to purchase in 2022. All orders must be submitted by Friday May 13 for delivery August 2022. The next booking is scheduled for January 2023.

Why does it take so long to get the products?

As this is a new program and network demand is currently unknown, manufacturers require at least 8-10 weeks to produce and distribute product. As network buying patterns become more predictable, we will be able to forecast demand and significantly shorten the order lead time.
